Vita

Christo is one of the most successful and well-known show hypnotists in Germany. With his professional and humorous manner, he regularly delights numerous audiences in both the corporate and private client sectors.

In a charming way, Christo turns his audience into the stars of the evening and lets them experience things they would have thought impossible. With more than 1650 hypnosis shows in the last 10 years, he is one of the leading professionals in Germany. His sought-after performances take him all over Europe, from Germany to Austria, France, Switzerland, England and Spain.

Christo has also performed several times in Tunisia, Australia, England and the United States of America, making him one of the few hypnotists who can boast international success. His show has won several awards.

Together with a show partner, Ben David, he founded the duo "Die Unfassbaren" and since 2016 has been the only show hypnotist to tour publicly in Germany without interruption.

Since 2011, Christo has held a board position in the association "UnterbewusstSein wirkt e.V." and is a member of the International Association for Youth Hypnotists (IAYH). He is an NLP practitioner and systemic coach. As a member of the German Association for Hypnosis (Deutscher Verband für Hypnose e.V.), he regularly leads seminars and training courses.

In addition to his show hypnosis, Christo is also interested in clinical hypnosis. His focus here is on reducing stress and improving the performance of pupils and students. This interdisciplinary approach is exceptional and his successes in both areas are spectacular.

Christo originally studied church music (e.g. in Mainz, Los Angeles – UCLA, Texas – UNT). He is still in demand today as a concert organist who performs abroad.
